Class Level Descriptions

Beginner: For dancers with a year or less or no Scottish Country Dance experience.

Intermediate: Dancers are comfortable with basic formations (e.g., hands across, reels of three or four, allemande) and some intermediate and advanced formations (e.g., poussettes, double triangles, knot). Can dance a new dance after one or two walk-throughs.

Advanced: Dancers are comfortable with most advanced formations and show excellent phrasing, handing, and covering. Can do a new dance with only a talk-through.
